

WINE ENTHUSIAST
MAGAZINE

December 15, 2008

93 POINTS

2007 Peter Franus
Sauvignon Blanc (Carneros)

There aren't too many Sauvignon Blancs from Carneros, but judging from this beauty, the grape thrives there. In the right hands, of course. This one's from great vineyards, including Truchard's. It's a magnificent wine in the white Bordeaux style, rich and lush in mineral-laden gooseberry, honeysuckle, white peach, Asian pear and lemongrass flavors, with a vibrant edge of tangy pepper spice. —S.H.