Peter Franus Wine Company
2016 Zinfandel Brandlin Vineyard

The fruitiness here has sharpness, precision, and an undeniable charm, though the wine is only just beginning to suggest the possibilities for future development. Plum and candied cherry bring out hints of malt and cedar, mixed with dried porcini mushrooms and a touch of licorice. The palate continues, fleshy, "comfortable", powerful and rich, underlining the impact of a woody note that frames everything well. (from the French)
