

Wine Spectator

PETER FRANUS

Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley
2002

This wine possesses a wonderful sense of balance, harmony and finesse. The core currant, blackberry and black cherry are rich, ripe and polished, with a tight focus and the tannins are ripe, too, with oak playing only a minor role. Best from 2007 through 2012. 1,450 cases made.
(Nov 15, 2005)

WineSpectator.com